Senate 2016-2017
Senate Bill #1718-004
Account #: 161108

Title: NCLC Campus Impact Conference

Organization: Student Government Operational

Date Introduced: 9/21/17

Purpose:

The purpose of this bill is to be able to send 10 additional members from Student Government, in addition to the Student Body President and the Senate President to the NCLC Campus Impact Conference. By attending this conference, it will give an opportunity to SG leaders to collaborate, learn and network with fellow Student Government leaders from across the country. Campus Impact will include topics on campus inclusion, sexual assault, championing mental health, accessibility for students with disabilities, state policy advocacy, ethics in leadership, project management, advocacy strategies and personal development and self-care. The goal of this conference is to have SG leaders attend and spark action and initiative within their roles for the entire Student Body when they return back to campus.
