 - i. Executive Report: President Elineus, Vice President Scanlon, Treasurer Gomes-Elineus- Thank you to everyone who came out to the town hall meeting today. There were quite a few students who came by and asked questions and gave us their input. SG has a scholarship fund that we award to a student every year. This years recipient is Emily N. from Gainesville. Senator Berry is passing around a letter that we drafted for the students from the University of Missouri. All I am asking is you to sign under the student senate section. Scanlon- I have a committee meeting tomorrow morning to bring all the papers you can fill out. Gomes- The paper I handed out is the individual RSO's bank account and what they have in their accounts currently. White- The spring alternate break applications are open. They close on December 4. Please spread the word. We do not know the location yet. Any questions email Emma.
 - ii. Judicial Report:
 - iii. Senate President Report: Connor Cahill: This Friday is the R&P workshop! Do not miss it, send in an excuse if you have class. Next one is December 4 at 10am. Next Tuesday we do not have senate so enjoy your break!
 - iv. Senate Executive Report: Molly O'Donnell: Holiday party will take place our last senate December 1st. It is a potluck, sign up on the sheet what ever you are going to be bringing. We will also be doing a gift exchange, white elephant. The max is $10 for the gift, wrapped. At the town hall we encouraged students to give their opinions on the concealed carry. All of the feedback we got today was all in favor for this. Please reach out to your constituents to get their opinions as well. Open seats, 3 business(one appointment), 2 health professions, 2 engineering, 1 undeclared, and 2 graduate.
 - a. Zachary Hill- College of Business- Passes unanimously.
